For God and Souls Newsletter March 1, 2012

- Divine Mercy Sunday will be celebrated the weekend of April 14-15, 2012
 Attached are two posters that will be used to create awareness of the opportunity Divine Mercy Sunday offers to wipe away all our sins if we receive communion that day in the state of grace and secondly have taken advantage of the sacrament of reconciliation within a period 20 days before or after the feast.
- The Novena to The Divine Mercy starts on Good Friday, April 6, 2012
 The intention of each day of the novena and a short novena prayer will be announced prior to recitation of the Chaplet of The Divine Mercy after the 9:00 a.m. daily mass. The Novena ends on the Saturday before Divine Mercy Sunday.
- Sign-up Schedule for new Introductory Phase 13-week Divine Mercy Cenacle Sessions at St. Matthew.

This schedule will be sent to previous signups who could not find suitable sessions and to new signups received from CCMC (Charlotte Catholic Mens Conference). We will add signups from April 15, 2012 (Divine Mercy Sunday) sign-up event in Narthex. Color-coded sign-up forms in Narthex will allow new members to choose from available sessions. If any current cenacle members would like to facilitate a new cenacle contact Reva.Perkins@gmail.com

We have one current Phase II cenacle that needs a home-host. We are looking for a generous person to offer their hospitality just as was done in the early church.

- Recommended opportunities for cenacle members' Works of Mercy
