The Cenacles of the Divine Mercy Party at the Hibachi Grill on January 8th was attended by 26 EADMs. As you know, St. Matthew Catholic Church asks all of its ministries to incorporate the three “S(s)”: Spirituality, Service and Socialization. Good food and fun among friends!

Barbara Coleman shares how St. Matthew helped St. John Neumann get its Divine Mercy Cenacle started with the support of Father Patrick Hoare, SJN’s pastor. Barbara and several of their cenacle members completed the Divine Mercy Cenacle Introductory program at St. Matthew. It is St. Matthew’s goal to assist other parishes in establishing a Cenacle Network.

John Feathers offers testimony on his return to the faith and how important Divine Mercy has been in changing his life. John also led the group in Grace before Meals. And he provided the Image of The Divine Mercy, the unleavened bread and flowers to set the Cenacle ambience.

Volunteers contributing to the event included Joe Calicdan for bringing us to the Hibachi Grill, arranging for these pictures and all-around support; Larissa Escobal (name tags), Annie Guteres (Divine Mercy decals), Roel Matta (pictures) and Ann Hatton (registration). Others distributed prayer cards and Divine Mercy pins.
